VOL. VII. RENO. WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA, FRIDAY, AUGUST 1, 1879. NO. 105.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

Edward S. Rowley, aged 70, prominent as a Methodist, lost $800 trying to beat a three-card monte sharper at Pittsfield, Mass.

A little girl at Springfield, Mass., was so frightened by a dog which had been set upon her, that she went into convulsions, and died.

General Walker estimates that the coming census will add ten millions to the official figures of the population of the country—making it 48,000,000.

The discovery of forgeries by Byron A. Robinson, of Cambridge, Mass., is a shock to the Central Baptist Church, of which he was a foremost member.

Town Treasurer Wilson of Monticello, Ind., brought a libel suit against the local newspaper that said he was dishonest; but before the case came to trial he fled with $21,000 of public money.

Two aged colored women fought in the Newport almshouse, and it transpired that sixty years before they had quarrelled about a lover so bitterly that, on meeting, their animosity was as strong as ever.

A Maine political speaker mentioned somebody as a Shylock, and an auditor asked who Shylock was. "If you don't know," the orator scornfully replied, "you'd better go home and read your bible."

Dr. Le Moyne, the cremationist, is said to have altered his will so as to deprive his son of $40,000 that had been intended for him. The son had given offense by refusing to burn the remains of his child.

A busy man at Columbus, Ohio, keeps a phonograph ready for use in his office, and, when anybody begins to tell him a long story, he says, "Just talk it into the instrument, and I'll listen to it by and by."

The verbiage of ordinary legal documents finds no place in the ferm of warranty deed provided by statute in Indiana, which is as follows: "A. B. conveys and warrants to C. D. (describe the property) for the sum of—."

William Squires and his wife agreed to simultaneously commit suicide at Akron, Ohio, in consequence of inability to live happily together. There is reason to believe, however, that Mrs. Squires thought she could live happily alone, for she took such a light dose of the laudanum that she quickly recovered, while the husband took a large dose and died.

The Bottomless Pit.

From the San Francisco Chronicle.

The place on the Benicia and Suisun road known as "the bottomless pit," near the government quarters at Benicia, has become troublesome again. When this road was built the place in question was found very difficult to fill in, and thousands of carloads of earth and rock were dumped in before a road bed was formed. On Saturday as the construction train passed over the place the ground was felt to settle under the train, but a powerful head of steam carried it across safely. A few minutes afterward track, ties and road bed for a distance of about 300 feet disappeared from sight and sank for many feet. As this was the road over which the overland trains were to go to San Francisco, via Carquinez Straits, in a few weeks, it will prove a set-back to the railroad company. A new route will in all probability have to be taken.

Frank H. Lord's Parting Shots.

From the New York Sun.

Mr. Frank H. Lord, whose marvellous pistol shooting was described in the Sun of Sunday last, sailed for Europe on Saturday. On the evening before his departure he went into Colin's shooting gallery and fired a few shots that showed that his nerve was unimpaired, and that his hand had not lost its cunning. Putting up an ordinary envelope, on which was a three-cent postage stamp, and stepping back twelve paces he said:

"Now I'll mash the nose of the Father of his Country," and fired. He was as good as his word, the ball taking off the nose of the portrait. Mr. Lord then knocked several caps off the top of a bottle without touching the glass, flattened hanging bullets, and went away apparently convinced that he was in good trim to meet any of the French pistol shots, from Paul de Cassagnac down.

A Young Hero.

The dwelling of the Wines family at Marinette, Wis., got afire in the night, and the lower part was all in flames before the three children had escaped from an upper room. The eldest, a boy, jumped from a window into a bed quilt held underneath. A younger lad, only eight years old, was about to follow, but the mother saw that a three-year-old girl was not at the window. "Run back and get Sis," she cried. The boy returned to his room, but the fire cut him off, and his lifeless body was found with the little one's clasped in his arms.

A Prudent Woman.

A woman at Greenbury, Ind., was not sure that she wished to die, but thought she did; so she put her head into a noose, stepped off a chair, taking the precaution to hold a sharp knife in her hand. The choking left her no longer in doubt that she wanted to live, and she hastily cut the rope above her head.

The First Wheat in America.

From the New York Sun.

It is difficult in the present day to realize that wheat was at one time unknown in America; yet prior to the discovery of this continent by Columbus there was no cereal in America approaching in nature the wheat plant. It was not, observes the American Miller, until 1530 that wheat found its way into Mexico, and then only by chance. A slave of Cortez found a few grains of wheat in a parcel of rice and showed them to his master, who ordered them to be planted. The result showed that wheat would thrive well on Mexican soil; and to-day one of the finest wheat valleys in the world is near the Mexican capital. From Mexico the cereal found its way to Peru. Marie D'Escobar, wife of Don Diego, de Chauves, carried a few grains to Lima, which were planted, the entire product was used for seed for several successive crops. At Quito, Ecuador, a monk of the order of St. Francis, by the name of Fray Jodosi Bixi, introduced a new cereal; and it is said that the jar which contained the seeds is still preserved by the monks of Quito. Wheat was introduced into the present limits of the United States contemporaneously with the settlement of the country by the English and Dutch.

Going the Rounds.

A somewhat extraordinary story is at present going the rounds in medical circles in England. A certain physician states that on the 11th of February last, his wife, while mixing some meal for her fowls, missed her wedding ring, and after a fruitless search gave it up as lost. On the 8th of April, while eating an egg at breakfast, she felt the spoon grate against something below the yolk, and on examination found her ring fixed by membraneous adhesions to the bottom of the egg. The egg, it is stated, was of extra size, and was laid the day before.

The swiftest railroad trains are run in England, according to a German government report, a speed of 50 miles an hour being common between London and Dover, London and York, and London and Hastings. Trains go at 42 miles an hour on one of the Belgian lines. The fastest in France and Germany do not often exceed 40, and other European countries 30 is the maximum.

Dr. Mintie's Nephreticum.

DR. MINTIE'S NEPHRETICUM works wonders. In all cases of Dropsy, Bright's Disease, Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Complaints, or Retention of Urine, these troubles are entirely cured by the Nephreticum. Female Weakness, Gravel, Diabetes, pain in the back side and loin are cured when all other medicines have failed.

See what the Druggists of Portland and San Francisco say about Dr. Mintie's Nephreticum and English Dandelion Pills:

"We have sold a large amount of Dr. Mintie's medicines; the English Dandelion Pills; also the Nephreticum, and in all cases they are highly spoken of and give entire satisfaction."

John A. Childs, Druggist, Second street, Portland.

C H Woodward & Co., Druggists, corner First and Alder street, Portland.

Messrs. Abrams & Carroll, wholesale, Druggists, Nos. 3 and 5 Front street, San Francisco, say:

"We regard Nephreticum as the best Kidney and Bladder Remedy before the public."

All Druggists keep these medicines.

For all derangements of the Liver,
Use Dr. Mintie's English Dandelion Pills.
For Billiousness and Dyspepsia,
Use Dr. Mintie's English Dandelion Pills.
For Fever and Ague,
Use Dr. Mintie's English Dandelion Pills.

Every family should keep the English Dandelion Pills on hand.

Dr. Mintie's Remedies will not "Cure all Complaints," but will, if taken according to directions, give immediate relief and perfect a cure in all troubles for which they are recommended.

WORSE THAN YELLOW FEVER.

There is yellow fever in the south, and the news of its progress is every day telegraphed over the country. The pestilence smites the strong as well as the weak, gives no warning, and kills its victims in a day. Its appearance is the signal for a panic. Its effects are in the highest degree sensational. Hence the public interest is aroused, and intelligence from the infected districts is read with eagerness by a whole nation. The widest sympathy is awakened for the sufferers; the whole country generously responds to the cry for relief which often comes from the plague-stricken cities of the south.

No telegram comes from Boston to announce a death from excessive use of ice water. The wires flash no news of the decease of a New Yorker from eating green cucumbers or unripe fruit. The many deaths which can be clearly traced to some violation of the simple laws of health are not telegraphed. That a long course of saleratus biscuit had prostrated Jones in San Francisco, or brought down Robinson in Sacramento, would have no general interest. Colic, inflammation, dyspepsia, these are common complaints; who cares? We read no big sensational head lines, such as "The Gripes Raging in New England," or "Outbreak of the Dysentery at Chicago!" No, such are vulgar and common ailments of no interest. Yet what is yellow fever compared to the intestinal diseases that afflict one-half of the American people? Improper food and wrong habits of eating and drinking cause one hundred cases of sickness and death where yellow fever causes one. There are not wires enough in the country to carry the news of the sickness in the United States due to wrong eating and drinking.

It is sad to think of what suffering and misery is caused by ignorance or neglect of the simple laws of health. How many at this moment are doubled up with colic, how many have stomachs on fire with heart-burn, how many laid low with gastric fever, how many whose bowels are in a torment great as the damned could feel in hell. Count the miserable, sour-faced dyspeptics; add up the bilious, the dysenteric, the flatulent; sum up the pain, unhappiness and death due to this whole monstrous catalogue of human ills, and what is the record of yellow fever beside it?

No pompous board of health inquires into the consumption of hot bread and fried meat. No health inspector gauges the number of gallons of iced water daily used in the refrigeration of American bellies. The unripe apples, green melons, over-ripe peaches, green gooseberries, ice cream and all the colicy host are consumed, and the story of the anguish they occasion remains unwritten. Will all mankind ever learn what and when and how to eat and drink? And when that knowledge becomes universal will it ever be practiced? Hardly ever, with the thermometer in the nineties and cucumbers at two bits a dozen.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Joaquin Miller has been writing a poem on the death of Prince Imperial. It is dated in that large, indefinite way of Miller's, "The Rocky Mountains, June, 1879." It would be interesting to know upon what particular peak of the Rockies Joaquin gathered his inspiration for this poem, but the poet jealously withholds the information. Perhaps he feared that his mountain fastness would be invaded by people eager to kiss his feet. The poem is entitled "In Memoriam," and appeared in Harper's Bazaar. The following verse gives a good idea of it:

Dead! Dead in the long strong grasses!
He died with his sword in his hand.
Who says it? Who say it? God saw it!
And I knew him! St. George! he would draw it
Though they swooped down in masses
Right on him and darkened the land!
Then the seventeen wounds in his breast!
Ah! these witness best.

The fact of Miller's intimate acquaintance with the Prince is fully brought out. No poet but Miller could write so impressive a line as "Who says it? who saw it? God saw it? And I knew him." The statement that "God saw it" seems weighty, and the high respectability of the Witness, backed by Miller's personal endorsement of the Prince's character, is quite overwhelming.

The S. F. Chronicle advertises large lithographed portraits of Ah Glenn, the next governor of California, at ten cents each, 100 $4 50." They will go begging at two bits a hundred after the September election.

Every citizen of San Francisco is obliged to re-register in order to vote at the coming election.

Ground has been broken for the new passenger depot at Sacramento. It will be located on the new ground filled in from the slough.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Eureka had a baby flood last Wednesday, by way of warning.

Carson City Father Atherton is down with measles.

Flirting at the depot is a standing amusement in Carson.

The water works company of Winnemucca are building a new reservoir.

A rotary zephyr recently stripped the Tuscarora Times-Review office of copy.

The Austinites are preparing barricades against the expected cloudbursts.

Water is shut off at Winnemucca from 6 P. M. until 5 A. M., owing to the scarcity at the works.

Austin had a hurricane Tuesday afternoon, lasting an hour and a half. No waterspout followed.

The campaign against dogs will be renewed at Carson to-day with redoubled fury.

Gold Hill Miners' Union will hold a picnic at Treadway's Park, Carson, on Saturday, September 6.

Miss Shirley, a reader and elocutionist, is at Eureka, where her entertainments are highly praised.

Cholera infantum and kindred diseases are prevalent in Virginia, and are unusually fatal this summer.

Says the Virginia Footlight: Miss Amy Sherwin, her concerts, her benefits and her husband, are at Eureka.

Virginia has a Piute of great artistic ability, which he displays in graphic drawings on the bill boards.

It is estimated that 23,800,000 gallons of water were drained from the Comstock through the Sutro tunnel last month.

An Italian, while grading a house lot in Eureka, found four bars of bullion and some silver coin, in all worth $600.

Brown & Mahanny, of the Footlight printing establishment, have dissolved partnership, Mahanny withdrawing from the firm. Brown will continue the business.

Madame Zaulo's minstrels did not draw in Carson, and did not show. Bad eggs had been provided for the contingency of a performance, but they failed to face the music.

A Carson boy humorously tied can to dog's tail. Dog entered into the spirit of the joke and humorously bit boy's leg. This was carrying the joke too far and the dog was shot.

The Eureka Sentinel is now gravely publishing the "Australian suspended animation hoax," with an editorial introduction. So late in the day, too. Oh, "Andersen, my Joe."

Rumored in Eureka that a bold band of amateurs will soon secretly begin rehearsing "Pinafore." The authorities will no doubt promptly suppress anything of the kind.

A petrified bone, about six inches long and two in diameter, was recently dug out of a gravel bank, ten feet below the surface, at Winnemucca. The bone was lying on a stratum of reddish sand.

Billy Eckhoff, of Virginia, was to have been married at Sutro on Sunday. But, according to the Virginia Stage, the bride weakened and had the ceremony postponed until after the hot weather.

A young man at Carson, named George Eccles, has had a small fortune left him, in the care of a guardian. The Tribune says that Eccles is alive with vermin, and that barbers will not permit him to enter their shops. Eccles must be crazy.

A track for the coming walking match has been constructed in Piper's Opera House, Virginia. Bertha Von Berg, the champion of the United States, and Madame Tourtellot, who has walked fifty hours without food, drink or sleep, will be the principal contestants.

A correspondent of the Tuscarora Times-Review, writing from Yankee Fork, says: "We have no Justice of the Peace here, and the Legislature has never provided a law by which a vacancy in that office can be filled. It is said that the only way to do it is to wait until one year from next November and elect one at the general election."

"Lazy Jack" of Carson (how consumedly lazy a man must be to get that soubriquet in Carson.) "Lazy Jack" set Carson wild with excitement over his report of a big placer find at the head of King's canyon. Large party started for the spot on Wednesday, but made no find. All looking for "Lazy Jack" now. Poor Jack swam in free drinks for a time, but now is the winter of his discontent.

Elko County Coal.

The Ogden Dispatch has an account of the discovery of a heavy vein of coal recently, between Tecoma and Lucin, at a point in Elko county about thirty miles north of the railroad, by one J. Galliher. A shaft was sunk about thirty feet, when a solid vein of what appears to be a good quality of coal, thirteen feet thick, was struck.

JOTTINGS.

—Mr. Peck, lately ill with diphtheria, is out again.

—M. Weil will open a fine lot of new goods to-morrow.

—Ninety-five in the shade at three o'clock to-day. The warmest day of the season.

—W. H. Kelsey has recovered from an attack of mountain fever, but is still weak.

—Flags at half mast all over town to-day in honor of the deceased Judge Bowker.

—The doctors and druggists have little to do here now. Reno seems to be in a very healthy condition.

—The Temperance Union Concert advertised for last evening was postponed in consequence of the death of Judge Bowker.

—Bright flames shooting up from the brick kilns in the Western Addition last night, awakened apprehensions of fire.

—Dr. Hogan went out to Washoe station this morning to set a brokent leg for a man whose name was not stated in the summons.

—Tule Frank drove in from Winnemucca valley yesterday. On the road his horse got overheated, and Frank expected him to die last night. Whether the heat or Frank got away with the horse has not yet been reported.

The Boss Poker Player.

There was an informal meeting of pioneers in front of Goeggel's jewelry store last evening, presided over by Tule Frank, with a GAZETTE reporter as (private) secretary. A discussion took place as to the respective abilities of various distinguised poker players of Nevada. After a thorough canvass of the merits of them all, it was conceded that Jim Ferguson of Wadsworth "could beat 'em all, and never steal a trick."

A Green Lawn on the Street.

The space between the tracks of the Central Pacific and the V. & T., west of the Depot Hotel, has been filled in and graded. Yesterday several loads of manure were hauled on and it will be sown for a lawn. A fresh green lawn in that situation will be refreshing and pleasing to the eye, and a welcome ornament to the town.

I. O. O. F.

Members of Truckee Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F., are particularly requested to attend a special meeting at their hall, on Friday evening, August 1st, at 6 o'clock sharp, for the purpose of making arrangements for the funeral of their late Brother, J. S. Bowker, P. G. N. O. HAMMERSMITH, N. G.

TROUBLE BREWING.

Engineer Clarke Threatened by the Mechanics' Union of Virginia—A Disturbance Expected at Virginia.

Thomas Clarke, an engineer on the V. & T. road, is not a member of the Mechanics' Union. The officers of the Union recently notified him that he must join the association or leave the road. Clarke refused to join, and paid no attention to threats of coercion. Last night, as the lightning train was about to leave Virginia, a committee from the Union notified Clarke that if he attempted to run the train into Virginia again it would be at his peril. Clarke replied that unless his engine broke down he would run in as usual. Considerable excitement was manifested in Virginia over the matter. Last night several of the Union men were arrested for threatening Clark. The military companies last night removed their guns from the Miner's Union Hall, where they are usually stored. U. S. Marshal Ash came down on the train last evening and went back with it this morning. Clark was at his post on the engine when the train left Reno to-day. The result of the affair is looked for with considerable interest.

The Autopsy.

The autopsy on the body of Judge Bowker took place this morning. Most of the medical men of Reno were present. The examination revealed that the cause of his death was apoplexy. Some old adhesions were found, showing that the subject, at some time previous to his last illness, had suffered from an inflammation of the brain. It is stated that the deceased had some years ago been badly cut and otherwise injured about the head, and it was at that time, probably, that the inflamation occurred. The old injuries, it is thought, were the predisposing cause of the recent attack, which resulted in the death of the Judge. A leading physician, who was present at the post mortem this morning, states that there is absolutely no foundation for the idle rumor that the cause of death was opium, or any drug whatever.

The Decay of Washoe City.

About eighteen miles from Reno, on the road to Virginia, the traveler sees a decayed and sleepy village with perhaps a hundred inhabitants. In 1865 that was one of the most bustling camps on the coast. Its population was constantly shifting, but at any time during the height of its prosperity, numbered over 3000. The miners, prospectors, farmers and traders flocked in from all the country round to drink and gamble. Its streets were a scene of constant bustle and liveliness. Such was Washee City in the days of its glory, but a few years saw it left empty and deserted, its saloons closed and its faro banks "busted." And to-day the tourist whose careless eye rests upon its ruins, little dreams of its former magnificence.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following transfers have been recorded since the 15th of last month:

J. P. Winfrey and wife to State of Nevada—one-sixth of Sullivan ditch, for $2000.

J. J. Spencer to Delia M. Spencer—south 16⅔ feet, lot 11, block O, for $1.

Julius Isaacs and wife to B. E. Hunter—south 130 feet of lot 6 in block 4, Western Addition, for $2000.

Alvaro Evans to W. D. Wagar—lot 16 in block 5, Evans' Addition, for $1,000.

C. C. Huffaker to Mrs. M. I. Robinson—eight acres at Huffakers, for $500.

Geo. W. Thaush and wife to J. H. Borman—lots 8, 9 and 10, block 3, Verdi, for $500.

Appointment of a Justice.

A good and competent man should be appointed to fill the vacancy created by the death of Judge Bowker. In a town like Reno the office of justice of the peace should be held by a man of character, ability and a fair knowledge of law. Character is of the highest importance in selecting a man for such a position. We trust that the board of commissioners will be able to find one in every way fitted for the position. The appointment will be made on Monday.

A Chance For All.

The officers of the railroad company have arranged matters so that Reno passengers have an equal chance with Carson and Virginia passengers for sleeping berths. Heretofore they could only secure them after people on the line of the V. & T. were supplied. The rule is now first come first served.

Funeral of Judge Bowker.

The funeral of Judge Bowker will take place on Sunday afternoon next. The hour has not yet been definitely fixed, but will be announced to-morrow. A number of officers of the Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F. are expected to attend from Virginia.

For Pyramid Lake.

Roger Johnson, J. F. Alexander and Pierre Humbert left for Pyramid Lake yesterday. They have gone for all the sport there is to be had there, and will be absent about a week. The wild goats, rattlesnakes, doves and trout will suffer from their visit.

Caught a Weasel Asleep.

A. J. Hartley, lives over the river. Going to his hen house yesterday morning he was surprised to find forty chickens lying dead. He set a trap right in that hen house, and last night pop went the weasel. Only nine chickens are left of all his flock. But the weasel is dead.

MURDERED AT YANKEE FORK.

Billy Dillon, Once a Resident of Reno, Kills His Partner at Bonanza.

The following is an extract from the Yankee Fork Herald. As Billy Dillon was once a brakesman on the Truckee division of the C. P. railroad, and well-known in Reno, the item has a local interest:

William Dillon and Richard King were partners in some lots and cabins in Bonanza and Custer. They had been wrangling at different times for weeks over the sale of this property, and on Saturday evening, July 12th, Dillon came down from Custer, and calling at the house of Mrs. King, met there Dick, her husband, and a quarrel ensued over the sale of a lot in Custer. King claimed that Dillon should divide with him the proceeds of the sale, as he was interested in the property. While King was in the act of starting a fire in the stove, Dillon deliberately drew his revolver, fired one shot, then got up and walked out on the street, where he was soon after taken into custody by an officer who happened to be at hand. King died almost immediately, kissing his wife good-bye.

PERSONAL.

R. A. Longstreet came up on last night's train from San Francisco.

Mrs. Sutro was a passenger on the lightning last night for San Francisco.

Bishop Whitaker went below on last night's lightning. He will return on Saturday.

Mine host Chamberlain and H. W. Clawson are having a run on the Comstock to-day.

Congressman Daggett came down from Virginia last evening, and returned on the train this morning.

H. B. Loomis, of the Enterprise, was in town last night, and went back to the Comstock on the lightning this morning.

G. F. Hayward, track agent for the V. & T., spent last evening in Reno, and took this morning's train for Carson.

A Tearful Farewell.

After Tule Frank had amassed a small fortune by selling tule hay in the days when hay was scarce in Washoe, he decided to visit his relatives in Illinois. On the day of his departure he reined in his foaming steed before an ancient hostelry in Reno, and was astonishished to see all the boys in tears, with handkerchiefs to their eyes. "Well, d—n you, what's the matter now," asked the unabashed agriculturalist. Said one of the boys, answering for the crowd, "You're going back to Illinois, where drinks are five cents, and we'll never see Tule Frank any more." As Frank tells this story himself, it is undoubtedly true.

Good Luck, Baker.

Mr. Baker, for some months local editor of the GAZETTE, retired from his position on the paper yesterday. His faculty for writing bright and humorous things has afforded much entertainment to the readers of the GAZETTE. His graphic pen has done much to enliven the columns of this paper. With a remarkable memory, nose for news, and many other rare qualifications, Mr. Baker would make a useful man on any newspaper. He will remain in Reno for a short time, and has not yet decided upon his next movement.

Why Indians Ride Free.

This is said to be the reason why Indians ride free on the Central Pacific. Shortly after the road came into operation it is related that a washout occurred near its eastern end. An Indian saw the trouble and comprehended the danger to the coming train. He ran five miles up the track, stopped the train and saved the passengers. When Crocker heard of the occurrence he issued an order that Indians should thereafter travel free on the Central Pacific.

Three Months Without Washing.

Tule Frank tells a story of George Haverly which is rather good. He says that George did the cooking for a party in camp during three months, and never washed himself in all that time. "What! Never washed his hands," said the Gazetteer. "Hands, no," yelled Tule, "what in brimstone would he wash his hands for?"

Henry's New House.

The foundation walls are laid for a fine new house on Fourth street, near Chestnut. The house will be occupied by Henry Johnson and family. It will be connected by telephone with all the newspaper offices in the city. In this way the daily journals will at all times be enabled to draw upon the unfathomed depths of Henry's mind for needed information.

I. O. O. F.

Members of Reno Encampment, No. 5, I. O. O. F., are requested to meet in conjunction with Truckee Lodge, No. 14, at their hall at 6 o'clock, sharp, Friday evening, August 1st, for the purpose of making arrangements for the funeral of the late J. S. Bowker, P. C. P.

DONALD MCKAY, C. P.

A New Dwelling.

LEGAL NOTICES.

Summons.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE Second Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe. The State of Nevada sends to Ardeen Jones greeting: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Jemima Jones as plaintiff in the District court of the Second Judicial District, and for the county of Washoe, State of Nevada, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this Summons, (exclusive of the day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said district, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to obtain a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant. Plaintiff alleges: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Mono county, California, on or about July 29th, A. D 1873, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife; that on or about September 9th, A. D. 1875, you, the defendant, willfully deserted and abandoned plaintiff, and ever since have so continued and do now so continue to desert, abandon and live apart from the plaintiff against her will, wish or consent; that for more than a year next preceeding the commencement of this action you, the defendant, have failed and neglected and now do fail and neglect to provide for the plaintiff the common necessities of life, which neglect is and was not the result of poverty on your part, which you could not have avoided by ordinary industry; that there are no children living of the issue of said marriage and no common property. Plaintiff prays to be restored to her maiden name and for costs, all of which will more fully appear from the complaint which is on file in the office of the clerk of said Court at Reno, in said county. And you are further notified, that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof I, P. B. Comstock, have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court this sixth day of December, A. D. 1878.

It is now introduced to the public of the Pacific Slope indorsed by the following certificates of the eminent Dr. S. Dana Hayes, State assayer of Massachusetts, and Dr. H. C. Louderback, of St Louis, Mo., both gentlemen prominent in their profession, and which is a guarantee to all buyers of its purity and quality.

I can show thousands of letters from private persons from all parts of the Union and Canada, to testify to its merits and the benefit it has afforded, as a family remedy and tonic.

Osburn & Shoemaker agents for Washoe county, will supply dealers at jobbers' rates by the bulk or case. maystf

Also for sale by Pinniger & Queen, Druggists, and by John F. Myers, Druggist.

WHY STAY POOR?

Prospecting often Pays; Idleness Never.

The millions of the Comstock were a lucky find. Worthless looking rock is often rich in treasure. At Leadville a simple assay made millionaires of many. Other bonanzas where least suspected await the coming of some unknown man. Who is he?

At Virginia City, Nevada, assays for Gold and Silver are made at $1.00 per sample, by CONRAD WIEGAND, formerly the Supervising Assayer of the U. S. Mint at San Francisco.

The mail will carry ore-samples to his office for one cent per ounce.

Reports which may be relied on absolutely, come back by return mail, or results are telegraphed when ordered so.

All costs, delays and risks in remitting money are avoided by the purchase of our Dollar Remittance Tickets, which pay for all work done in our establishment.

We sell these prepaid tickets at a discount, when $5 worth or more are ordered at one time.

Small sacks for mailing ore samples also for sale at a nominal price.
